“What a wonderful book! As I read Razzle, Dazzle, Princess Girl, I saw my little girl twirling, spinning, and laughing. That’s the way God intended childhood to be! Read these pages to your child and both of you will dance with joy!”

Dr. Curt Dodd
Senior Pastor
Westside Church

“Razzle, Dazzle, Princess Girl celebrates the spirit of all little girls past, present, and future. It’s reflective for those who have been there, it’s magical for those going through it, and it’s playfully dazzling for those destined to become. Heidi Cook brings a world of charming personality to girls everywhere. As a best friend and sister, we share the common fun of being frilly, silly, and girly. This book will entice your little girl and tickle her fancy as it will surely be one of her favorite books of all time.”

Beka Doolittle

“...Razzle, Dazzle, Princess Girl is an absolutely delightful story!”

For Tarah,
my little princess girl

"That our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace."
Psalm 144:12

There are lots of fun things for girls to be girls—jewelry, all sorts, diamonds and pearls.

Necklaces, bracelets, and earrings too,
and all different colors and sizes of shoes.

Being a girl, two things are most fun,
lipstick and nail polish, we paint every one!
Dresses and hats and bows in our hair...
Flowers we pick and flowers we wear!

Pigtail braids or a full head of curls,
either way we are beautiful girls.
